COLORED MAN'S HOUSE BURNED.

The small cottage residence at Stockton and Fifteenth streets, occupied by 'Squire' Harris, was almost entirely consumed by fire yesterday afternoon. The alarm was turned in at 7:30 o'clock and the department responded promptly. It is to its quick, vigorous that even more damage to this and neighboring houses did not result. The flames started from a defective pipe, and were not subdued until the roof had been destroyed and the Interior of the house much deranged and damaged.

By a constant play of water upon the adjoining frame buildings they were prevented from catching. tendent J. K. Fussell, of the county schools, has returned from West Vir-

His wife and he disputed a little, the sisterin-law came in and was soon ousted, the father-in-law next appeared, and he, too, was satisfied with his portion of the plastic art. Then the streetman turned upon the brother-in-law and was paying him his compliments when the officer came upon the scene and arrested him. He was later bailed.

The old negro, Solomon Jones, who was shot by Emmett Sheffield, a private watchman for the Richmond and Petersg railroad, Wednesday night, is ch improved, and will soon again be on his pins and spinning about. Watch-man Sheffield tells a slightly variant tory from the version of Solomon the which he says that the negro did the first shooting, and that he his part for protection. He explains that Solomon was perambulating along the railroad, and when he approached him called to the negro to stop, but he didn't; he shot, and again called back that he would shoot a third time. Then the officer enacted his part of the dual play. UNDER A PARALYTIC STROKE.

Carreno Greeted With Enthusiasm-The Audience Refused to Leave.

Teresa Carreno, who knows so well how to take us away from the commonplace of life and transport us into a temporary fairyland, appeared at the Academy last evening, before a large house, which was quick to show the great artist all manner of appreciation, great artist all manner of appreciation, And well it might, for never did she shine in a more brill ant light or more sincerely captivate an a dience in which, for once genuine music lovers outnumbered curiosity-hunters and the maudlin ignorant enthusiasts, who play too im-portant a part in the concert season of every city. The audience were fairly thrilled by Carreno's splendid exhibition of the meaning and depth of the which she played, works which demand for their adequate rendition not only a truth of conception and fulness of appreciation, with a wfilingness by the per-former to sink his own personality, but also a technique of the highest order.

Madame Carreno opened the conce with Bach's "Chromatique and Fuque The intensity and significance of her playing of the Chopin numbers, the deli-cate shadings, the rich colorings she imparted to them would be difficult scribe. Davies, and Alexander Coke, as counsel for Arnaldo Creamery Butter, in 1-pound prints, 15c.; Alexander Coke, as counsel for Arnaldo Maia, against the directors of the Eastern State Hospital for $10,000 damages. The plaintiff was a son of Camillo Maia, a confectioner at No. 14 east Broad street, and was engaged with some other men excavating for marl on the premises of the State Hospital at Williamsburg last the City Circuit Court.

A very interesting case was decided in this tribunal yesterday. It was that of Elliot against the Central Life-Insurance Company, of Cincinnati, which resulted in a verdict for $4,000 for the plaintiff, less a credit of $207. Mrs. Elliot held a policy upon the life of her father, Mr. Broach, and the insurance company contended that the policy was faulty, the deceased being too old not sound etc. The ceased being too old, not sound, etc. The jury held differently, however, and rendered a verdict as aforesaid. Counsel for the defendant company moved to set the verdict aside, which motion was overruled, and judgment was entered and extractional control of the country of the ception taken. Signor Campo-bello has been asked to take charge of the productions, and has consented to so. The operas will be put in rehearsal immediately after the May festival. immediately after the May festival.

Several special features will be introduced into the operas. The Fair scene in the "Martha" will last an hour, and a May-pole dance will be introduced by twenty ladies, and the flower song will be given by ten young ladies, who will carry huge bouquets of flowers, which they will scatter amongst the audience. It is designed to make the festival the biggest thing of the kind that has ever been given here.

WANT GOOD FRIDAY RESPECTED. Objection to the Royal Bell-Ringer

Appearing Here on That Day. The fact that the Royal Hand-Bell Ringers will appear at the Young Men's Christian Association in one of the entertainments constituting the star course on Friday evening next, April 16th, which is Friday evening next, April 16th, which is Good-Friday, has been the subject of considerable criticism on the part of several Richmond ministers. The matter has also created much discussion among other Christian people, and several protests against the appearance at the association of this combination upon this solemn day have been made to Secretary McKee, of the Young Men's Christian Association. The opposition to this entertainment comes chiefly from the Protestant denominations which observe Good-Friday
